

USING THIS GUIDE:

This guide has been published to assist students in preparing for transfer to Webster University from Jefferson College in the areas of Art History and Criticism, Studio Art, Graphic Design, or Studio Emphasis. This is intended in place of individual academic advising. Students are strongly encouraged to meet with a Webster University transfer counselor early in their academic career to ensure a smooth transfer experience.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF ART, DESIGN AND ART HISTORY

The Department of Art, Design, and Art History offers a wide variety of courses that seek to prepare students to successfully encounter the contemporary art world. The program encourages students to understand and synthesize art traditions, and to confront challenging ideas and emerging technologies. The learning environment in the department emphasizes personal expression, alternative approaches, and experimentation. At the same time, the department stresses fundamental concepts that unify all art and yet allow infinite variation. The Department of Art, Design and Art History shares the belief that intensive work, study, and involvement in the studio are the best preparation for professional art training or personal career goals.
