*GENERAL EDUCATION/GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP PROGRAM:

Webster University requires all baccalaureate students to complete a general education program. The University is implementing a new set of general education requirements. The Global Citizenship Program (GCP) is a set of undergraduate degree requirements and a general education program developed by Webster University faculty to help prepare students to confront global problems and 21st century challenges.

Effective academic year 2014-2015, new transfer students with fewer than 75 transferrable college credit hours seeking a BA or BS degree will follow requirements of the Global Citizenship Program (GCP). See GCP Transfer Guide developed for Jefferson College.

New transfer students with more than 75 transferrable college credit hours, or those seeking a BFA, BM, BMEd, or BSN degree will remain under the previous General Education Program. See General Education Transfer Guide developed for Jefferson College.

Effective academic year 2015-2016 and beyond, all new students will follow requirements of the GCP.

Students who complete an Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree or the CBHE-approved block of general education before transferring to Webster University

No more than one course completed with a grade of D may count toward fulfilling the specific requirements of the major. A

ELECTIVES:

Elective hours can consist of any college-level courses that are not already being applied to the major or general education requirements of the degree. Many students may choose to obtain a minor out of the required elective hours. Please note that all coursework applied to a minor must be completed at Webster University, with a grade of C- or better.
